

Stress-free tutoring that fits around your family

“The tutoring service provided by anzuk exceeded my expectations. As a parent of a 6 year old, teaching from home has its challenges and the hour of engagement is well worth the investment. Children always behave better for teachers and it was certainly the case during this session. Having the tutor work through the worksheets set by the school was really beneficial and makes up for the 1-1 time that is certainly missed at the moment. I was asked instantly by my 6 year old when she would be seeing her tutor again.” – Adam, Full-time Dad
